PROVISIONAL LEAGUE — DIVISION ONE

OFFICIAL PROGRAMME

FRANKSTON GOSSIP

Two goals by young BONI BOTHA was enough to gain us two more valuable points last week.

Early pressure on NTH SUNSHINE's goal had seen "DEEKS" MOORE header hitting the crossbar and being scrambled away.

A poor goal kick was seized on by BONI who hit a first time shot just under the bar to give us the lead.

Playing the better soccer another goal had to come and it did, good lead up work led to a cross from BILLY INGLIS to BONI to hit home number 2. Despite a lot of good soccer in the second half we did not increase the lead.

Our Reserves fought out a 1-1 draw a fair result to the match. STH SPRINGVALE visit us today and though it might be premature they look to have done the double winning both leagues and more importantly gaining promotion, we offer them our congratulations.

Today's matches both First and Reserve are still vital games for us, we still need to finish as close to the top as we can and the Reserves are looking for a Runners Up position.

Last year's fixture against SPRINGVALE produced excellent games and hopefully this match will be similar.

The rare double of a father and son playing together was seen at NTH SUNSHINE last week when father FRED BOLTON and son MICHAEL played in the Reserves, FREDIE team manager and BAYSIDE player has come into the squad due to injuries and unavailability of players.

Whilst on the BAYSIDE LEAGUE the 3rd Cup will be played at LANGWARRIN between the hosts and ROSEBUD, MORNINGTON and HASTINGS compete in the Seconds Cup. See you there.
