BON VOYAGE

Norm Stanley returns to the UK next week after a pleasant holiday with his Australian family, the Parry's, over the last few weeks. Norm is well remembered for his work for soccer in the early years ranging from 1961 through to the 80's. He was involved in just about everything with the Frankston City SC and was instrumental in the establishment of Mornington and several other local Clubs. Norm was President of the Metropolitan Leagues Committee from 1961 to 1971 and is a Life Member of the Victorian Soccer Federation. Nice to see you around the Club, Norm - have a good trip home.
