VICTORIAN SOCCER

The Big Picture

The Victorian Soccer Federation has undergone some substantial changes over the past 12 months and results are now beginning to flow through.

VSF Commission - The Commission has presented it's first 6 Month Report to 30 June 1997. The main activity has been in addressing debt and financial management considerations. Other issues involve Sponsorship, Junior Development, Administration and Planning. The purchase of new VSF premises at 236 Dorcas St, Sth Melbourne has also been finalised.

VSF Strategic Plan - The Commission has completed a Blue Print for the development of the game in Victoria. Submissions and comments are invited by 25 July 1997.

State League Restructure - Divisions 2 and 3 will become amateur commencing in 1998. Fencing criteria have also been amended so that from 1998 fully fenced facilities are only required in Premier League and Division 1. The State League Management Committee will be making a full 1998 restructure recommendation to the Commission by 31 Aug 1997.

The Strikers - Two years ago we conducted a planning day and produced "VISION 2000" - our 5 year development plan. The Plan is now due for the Annual Review and we will hold a half day workshop at Optus Oval, Carlton, in late August. We invite your comments and/or participation in the workshop.
