Graham: We're no hoppers in title race

By Ian Ladyman

George Graham has warned that a £16million summer investment will still leave his Tottenham side trailing the Premiership elite in the coming season.

Graham has invested £11m in Ukraine forward Sergei Rebrov and £5m on Wimbledon left back Ben Thatcher as well as signing goalkeeper Neil Sullivan, also from Wimbledon, on a Bosman free transfer.

But, in a sobering message to Spurs supporters, Graham said that a European finish represents the height of his ambitions.

'It's no secret that my squad is not as good as some of the bigger clubs that are in the top three or four positions. They have massive squads,' he explained. 'I have been here only two years and we still have work to do.

'My aim next season will be to qualify for Europe. The League is not possible but Europe is.'

Graham recently failed with a £6m bid for England Under 21 striker Carl Cort, who has since moved to Newcastle for £7m, and last season almost bought Cort's former Wimbledon team-mate John Hartson.

He still has that money available and hopes soon to add a further £3m through the sale of winger David Ginola to Aston Villa or Marseille.

Graham makes no secret of his need for a top-class striker but is resigned to kicking off the new season without one.

'I would like to bring someone in but would have to say that it is highly unlikely,' he said. 'There's a lack of quality players available at the moment, so we will wait.'

To Days Opponents Croydon City Arrows

We welcome Croydon City Arrows to Centenary Park today, and look forward as always to a tough contest. Good luck to both teams.

Results To Date

This half of the season has been one of great determination by all the playing staff, as the results to date show. We have gained maximum points so far, lets make sure we continue in that fashion today. The league is their to be won, and if we continue to play the brand of football we have displayed this half of the season we can pull it off.

The win last week at Cranbourne was a determined win, and well deserved, going to Cranbourne is never easy and last week was no exception, but the team on the park showed great discipline to come out 3 - 1 winners. A special mention should be made to our loyal and very vocal supporters who made the atmosphere at cranbourne last week a memorable affair. The Club thanks each and every one of you for your tremendous support at both home and away games.

Thank You All.
