THE STRIKER

SEASON 2006

Match Notes

STATE LEAGUE Division 3 S/E

Sunday 25th June 2006

Strikers v North Caulfield

STRIKERS ON THE NET

FROM THE PRESIDENTS CHAIR

Last weeks win was a great tonic for all connected at STRIKERS. Something tells me however that the boys will have to play every game with the same intensity of courage and with that never say die attitude to get more points to ensure our safety. A quick mention on our young reserve side surely on recent performances they can not be far away from getting their first points.

JAMIE STEWART and STEVE KEENAN have stamped their authority in the games they have played since rejoining the club. As a result all the other players have lifted their games to match their attitude all very positive. You will see from soccer snippets that GEORGE and the club are doing all we can to strengthen the playing squad to give us more depth making us more competitive. So to today's game and the visit of high flying NORTH CAULFIELD in both seniors and reserves, we would like to welcome all connected with their club to McClelland Drive.

Today Fraser Cameron plays his 50th Reserve Team Game, only 22 other reserve team player have played more than 50 games out of 208 reserve players overall, while 25 first team players out of 162 players overall have played more than 50 games.

Frankston Strikers History CD

On sale today will be a Frankston Strikers History CD Rom, it costs $10 and covers the entire history of the Strikers 1994-2006, Karingal United 1968-1993, Skye Rovers/Frankston United 1978-1993 and the Frankston Bayside Teams 1978-2006.

They are on sale in the clubrooms behind the bar, a computer is set up so you can flick through the CD Rom to check out what is on it.

BAYSIDE NEWS

The FRANKSTON FILLIES and the OUTLAWS organised a club function at the club rooms last week it was a great success.

Unfortunately it went to some of the girls heads as normally STEVE has a squad of fifteen to choose from each weekend however he only had ten girls available when it came to match time against new league entry ROSEBUD, despite this the game finished 1-1.

JUNIOR NEWS

Our little under 7's and 8's are in the middle of a school holiday break and will resume playing again soon.

The under 12 team also had problems getting a full side together last weekend due to holidays and nine players were fielded against top of the table side CAULFIELD despite a heavy loss the boys and girls put on an heroic performance and did not disgrace themselves. WELL DONE TO ALL OF YOU.

CLUB SNIPPETS

It was good to see last years club captain ROBBIE CURRIE (out for this season after a knee reconstruction) helping out on the gate last week like wise reserves Best and Fairest from last year TERRY BINYON (a broken ankle has kept him out so far this season) running the line in the reserve match. This is the much needed spirit the club needs GRAEME WRIGHT also looks to be out for the rest of the season having broken his leg and sustained other injuries in a car accident, we wish him well in his recovery. KEVIN JONES is also on the injured list but we do not know how long he is out for. MARCUS BROWNLIE whom returned to the club a few weeks ago hopes to be in action today after missing last weeks game with an ankle injury. Several players are overseas watching the World Cup JOSH LEGGETT and the CURDY BROTHERS. A new signing from LANGWARRIN is also unavailable for the same reason GREG KILNER so long a goal scorer for our neighbours LANGWARRIN will be playing for us on his return. Also in the pipe line a signing from PINES. A reminder to you all that the Legends Room will again be open today PHIL DOBBIN continues to acquire new material to display. If anybody has anything for display please see PHIL.

BAYSIDE NEWS

The OUTLAWS as seen from table below have lost both games and this means that they play in the secondary CUP competition for this season
