THE STRIKER

SEASON 2007

Match Notes

STATE LEAGUE Division 3 S/E

Saturday 18 August 2007

Strikers v Mooroolbark

STRIKERS ON THE NET

www.frankstonstrikers.com

FROM THE PRESIDENTS CHAIR

MOOROOLBARK are today's visitors and unfortunately they find themselves at the bottom of a very tight ladder, we drew the previous game with them away 2-2, but we incurred two red cards. To keep our promotion hopes alive we should need all 3 points today. The thought of either promotion or relegation keeps everybody in anticipation and with just five games to go with promotion in our sights we can take a look at our games and also that of EASTERN LIONS and ENDEAVOUR.

STRIKERS, today MOOROOLBARK. Wednesday away to ENDEAVOUR, BERWICK away DOVETON home and finely NUNAWADING away. EASTERN LIONS have four games to go BERWICK at home today DOVETON away NUNAWADING away and SPRINGVALE at home. ENDEAVOUR have five games NUNAWADING at home today STRIKERS at home FITZROY away MORWELL away and finely SANDRINGHAM at home. It's going to be a nail biter. With GORGE HUGHES away in Scotland for three weeks DUGGIE CHISHOLM has taken over full coaching duties having been involved all season. He has the full backing of both players and committee. The STRIKERS are holding their main club fund raiser for the season can you either sell or buy raffle tickets for your club, we hope to raise enough money to pay off what else but accumulated debts, yes it doesn't get any better to run a club so how about it. Please see any of our bar staff or committee members if you can help. So until our last home fixture for season 2007 in a fortnight GO STRIKERS

SOCCER SNIPPETS

TOM BURGESS popular coach of our men's Sunday sides has been appointed director of coaching for our junior section for next season. He will definitely benefit our up and coming youngsters. Young JOE DONAGHY set off for Scotland with GEORGE HUGHES on his soccer playing future. He has a number of trials already lined up namely at RANGERS HEARTS KILMARNOCK FALKIRK and across the border with PORT VALE. All at the club wish him the very best of luck.

Possibly not many people outside of the old KARINGAL fraternity would know one of their ex players ANDREW DOCHERTY, it was very sad to hear that his wife of just a few months was tragically killed on the Frankston Freeway just a few weeks ago. We offer our condolences to the family.

The club was given news on a trip back to Scotland of ex player/supporter of RAB STEWART and Rosemary. The HEARTS club surprised him with tickets for the opening game of the season against HIBS a loss 0-1 I'm afraid. However it brought back nostalgic memories for RAB, in 1979/80 he was a member of the team that helped win the championship it was certainly an emotional return and one he will long cherish. As mentioned elsewhere the rearranged and very important fixture against ENDEAVOUR will be played at DAREBIN soccer complex NORTHCOTE next Wednesday evening KO 8:30 pm.

Once again our young Nigerian soccer player has emailed the club continuing his wish to play for STRIKERS we are still trying to find out if this is a genuine request. Hopefully DAVID BECKHAM might be next.

BAYSIDE NEWS

At the halfway point in the FILLIES competition was split into two sections in a similar fashion to the Scottish Premier League

The girls finished in the lower half of the league. However in the new competition set up they are confident they can do well.

Mean while the men's first team are progressing well in the cup competition. In the last round they beat PHILLIP ISLAND 10-0

DANIEL CONDON doing a SIMON O'DONNELL in scoring five goals. In the next round they have been drawn at home against WESTERN PORT. Tomorrow all three teams are at home the first game starting at 11 am
