HEARTS OF OAK

The weekly meeting of the Frankston Hearts of Oak Club was held in the R.S.L. Hall on Friday evening.

There was a good attendance, and members thoroughly enjoyed games and competitions organised by Mrs. L. Holt.

Mrs. Walker is now living with relatives at 41 Kars Street, while waiting for a bed in a Melbourne hospital.

Prize-winners at the whist drive on Wednesday were: Ladies, Mrs. Orr 1, Mrs. Paul 2, Mrs. Lawrey 3; men, Mr. Grant 1, Mr. Campbell 2, Mr. Sewell 3.

The special prize was won by Mrs. Kent, and the prizes for the highest scores over a period of six weeks were won by Mrs. J. Holt and Mr. Orr.

Members are reminded of the monthly dance in the R.S.L. Hall on Friday, October 21, and also of the "bring-and-buy sale" on October 28 in St. Paul's Church of England Hall.

FRANKSTON

Members of the Frankston Rotary Club, Thursday last, had, as guests, a representative cross-section of professional trade and business from the Frankston community; the object was to give the guests some idea of workings of Rotar

Towards this end guest speaker, Mel Rotarian, T. L. Fitzpatrick, a director of "Rodda" and a past president of the Institute of Management, who was introduced as chairman of the day, Pratt, gave an amusing and interesting address on the subject of competition. It affects each and every one of us, and in particular, those engaged in business. Mr. Fitzpatrick likened the person who receives competition to a small boy who would receive a dose of castor oil. "He does not like it certainly spurs to action." The speaker went on to say that competition is the incentive to better service, efficiency and professional competence and cited instances of the effect of competition in various countries visited during his overseas. He not
