CLUB NEWS

Moreland Club has secured the services of Sam Penlerick as trainer, and he is doing a great job in getting injured players fit again. D. Godding hopes to be in training this week, but it will be a few weeks before Don Hodgson is fit after two broken ribs.

Any Irish player desirous of playing for Ireland should contact Sam Horrobin at 83 Emmaline St., Northcote; or Frank Laughran, 10 Verdon St., Maidstone.

Brighton's defence is on the improve, but the forward line is still weak. Stansfield is still a bit short of a run; but Honan is a very cool player, and took a penalty kick which gave the keeper no chance.

South Yarra's goalie is now known as the "Penalty King." Two failures against him already this year, whilst last year only one out of five passed.

South Melbourne United need a centre-forward badly. Many opportunities were missed last week. Don Jordan will probably be tried in this position, as he kicked 10 goals in three games with the Reserve team this year.

With the taste of victory, Park Rangers are keen to meet Dandenong. Mr. Jack Pirrie (ex-Falkirk), coach, is now getting results, and the team is blending better.

Melbourne Club report that the refereeing in its last game was excellent — one of the best seen this season.

Jos Bierman, Frankston's best and fairest player last season, who recently joined the Navy, has been appointed captain of the Navy team.

In the Williamstown 1 v. Williamstown 2 game there was only one free kick awarded. Is this a record?

Bayswater has elected Klaus Imberger its new captain. He has been playing for Bayswater since 16 years of age.

Sandringham City was weakened by an injury to star defender, Jack Hyndman, but he should be fit again shortly. Rick Jennings had his first game for two years.

Chris, Keiren, of Preston Club, had the misfortune to fracture his wrist in the first game of the season, and will be on the sidelines for a spell.

Yarraville Bison are experimenting with three new forwards, and a left full-back.

The Rootes-Austria game got very rough in the second half, and four of the Rootes team were injured.

South Yarra Reserves player, George Nicholls, scored a hat-trick recently, to bring his total of goals to five in the last two matches.

Frankston still cannot find a winning combination, and do not look like breaking the ice against Lions this week. The Club and supporters extend their sincere sympathy to the South Melbourne Club and to goalkeeper Pollard in particular, who suffered a broken leg in the game against Frankston Reserves last Saturday.

The Disciplinary Committee exonerated Dandenong from blame in the incident which occurred in their match with Yarra Park on May 3.
