Report:

It seems that Tom Newbiggin's careful preparation is paying dividends after this performance. After four games against three top sides, we are still unbeaten. Yallourn, having taken three points from us last season, must have been confident especially when they had mounted 14 goals against 2 so far this season. Frankston came home well, however, to the tune of 5 goals to 2. Yallourn's only replies were a penalty and a dubious second goal from danger-man, Szabo, when Frankston was 5-1 up and coasting to a great victory. The middle three have been getting a lot of the limelight lately, but in this game Dave Morgan and Graham Bauk gave us some of their best form and scored 2 goals each. Dave was a delight. His first goal was an opportunist effort, preceding home a parried shot from Keith Lawson. The second was a beauty when he received the ball well-guarded, sent two men the wrong way and held off two more challenges before thumping the ball home. We've been waiting for Graham to score and today he was rewarded for his effort with 2 goals. Mick Benton scored the other from a free kick. Lining up for a planned free kick, he espied a gap and home went the ball, despite the efforts of the Red's keeper.

The back four are not getting much credit, but the two old 'uns and the two young 'uns are in fine form and not letting much by.

A great win against one of the top sides and good spectator value.

Best three: Morgan, Benton, Papoutsakis.

Report:

This reserve game was hard and exciting but disappointing in that the Blues lost a point by two silly defensive mistakes which cost them a victory. George Eadie lobbed back over Howard Dixon for an equaliser for Yallourn and Billy Todd, playing for the injured Alan Jones had hardly taken up position when he was put under pressure close to goal and Yallourn had taken the lead.

Best for the Blues: Trevor Parry, a thrustful winger and the cause of 2 Frankston goals. Alan Jones (Braces), a tireless wing-half; and Tom Flynn, a capable performance at right-back.

Another point, however, and the only lapse in four games to keep Frankston on top of the League.

Report:-

An inept performance by Frankston on a pitch which could only be described as woeful. 60 yards wide and where it wasn't bumpy, it was wet. This spoiled any ideas of football and the game developed into a spiteful affair with Alan Parrott being sent off with us 2-1 down. A big fight back after being down twice gave us a penalty, converted by big Mick Benton after Bill Houston had a header punched off the line. Hercules scored first with a penalty after Bill Lewis handballed after 5 minutes. A fight back from the Blues then saw Alan Parrott bang home a free kick off a defender.

Not many good players on view in this poor performance by Frankston, but it was perhaps a good job that Kurt Schroeder, Nigel Bevis and Bill Lewis were on form in the second half as they had to be.

More effort is required if we are to keep this league challenge up. We will meet these sorts of conditions again and must adapt ourselves to them.

Scorers:- Parry, Brown

Report:-

Like the senior side, the reserves couldn't control this game, although better equipped with talented footballers. When Trevor Parry volleyed home after George Quennell had a shot blocked, it looked as though the reserves were in for another big win. But it wasn't until Jim Brown scored with a glorious header ten minutes from the end that the game was clinched.

Best players in an interesting but unskilful game were: T.Harry, always a menace on the left wing; J.Brown, forever trying to win the game and B.Finch, who did tons of work around the field.

Frankston Reserves still on top and with today's Sandringham side having 24 goals against, this should be a big win for the league leaders.

SUNDAY RESERVES

Our Sunday team, also undefeated, won their fifth game in a row 3-0 against Mooroolbark on Sunday. Goals were by Adams, Monty and Hunter. This team has won all its games and has scored 17 goals for with only 4 against.

PERSONALITY PROFILE No.2 BILLY HONSTON

Our second Personality Profile this season is Liverpoolian, Billy Honston. Billy joined us this season after 3 years with State League side, Lions. Bill was a regular right-back in the Lions side and can mix it with the best of them. Since his acquisition he has plugged the gap that Frankston had in the middle, and what he lacks in speed, he makes up for in guile and skill.

Bill is married to a local girl, Lynne, from Donbeach, where they live. They had a trip back to Liverpool a couple of years ago and came back the hard way, overland. They had their problems, but say they wouldn't swap the experience for anything.

Bill is a cable pjoiner with the F.M.G. at the Fort Melbourne depot. The big No.6, with the 'Desperate Dan' chin is a formidable player in our line-up and has labelled his arrival at Frankston with his appointment as Vice-Captain. Another personality with tons of experience and enthusiasm for the Frankston Club.

JUNIOR SPOTLIGHT No.1 JIM SKELLEY

Counting the teams attached to our Club, we found that we had 21. Three of the senior variety, the remainder being Junior sides. Of our wealth of youngsters, we hope to feature the most promising in this corner of the programme. First on the list is Jim Skelley, a cousin of boxer, Tom Flynn. Knowing him personally for two reserve seasons, I was surprised to find that Jim is only 17. He has tons of heart and strength, especially for one so young. Jim played his first reserve game at the age of 15.

Jim was born in Dundee, but speaks the native tongue of Australia.

Playing regularly for two seasons at left-back for our reserve side, Jim has twice been up for trials for the Victorian squad - a feat indeed with all the kids there are playing the round-ball game in Victoria. Our future looks rosy indeed with youngsters of Jim's calibre to rely upon.

CITY CHALLENGER

Good afternoon everybody and welcome once again to the North Seaford Reserve for our match against Sandringham. The 'Hammers' have started fairly well this season with two wins and a draw from five games. Their nine goals against the flagging Triestina last week seemed an odd result, but nine goals in any game is a feat in itself.

Our strong defence could come under trial this week if we don't watch out. Our own matches against Sandringham are usually close. Last year we beat them 2-1 and 3-1, both games being keenly contested.

Two players of note. Inside right, George Drda, a Czech and a dangerous attacker, and Brian Laughton. Big Brian is a true sportsman and never gives up until the final whistle. We have always found him a formidable opponent. Anyway, we welcome the Sandringham Club to our venue and wish them an enjoyable afternoon's soccer.

Heard the pitter-patter of tiny feet early on Thursday night. It was Hans Gussenhoven busy pinning up pictures of Feijenoord everywhere. The Dutch side had just beaten Celtic in the European Cup Final. Some feat, you know, or so our Scottish contingent in the Club will tell you. Of course Celtic beat a tired Leeds side in the semi-final. Mind you, I don't think any of us comes from Leeds. Most of us come from 'the Smoke'. Didn't Chelsea win something or other, and didn't Arsenal win a cup of some sort?...and didn't they beat the CHAMPION Dutch side, Ajax? And guess who were first out of the dressing-rooms Thursday night... Messers Brown, Eadie, Lewis, Flynn, Simpson and Skelley. Even coach, Tom Newbiggin started training early. ENGLAND FOR THE WORLD CUP!

Tony Hall was an absentee last Saturday. Nancy, as you may or may not know is due any time. No news at time of going to print, but we are sure all will wish them well. Both have done tons for our Club.

'Poor old Tom', Tom Flynn, our talented young full-back, was having his second 'Pro' fight on Channel 6 last Tuesday night. Tom did well to keep away from that 'Wild Bull of the Pampas', but caught a right swing late in the round to end his evening of stardom - or begin his evening of stardom - whatever you like.

Another Cockney accent was heard in the week. Terry Scourfield arrived in Australia two weeks ago and has joined us at Frankston. Terry had a game in the reserve trial and performed well. Looks as though another handy player has arrived. Terry and his wife are staying with Ron Smith at Karigal.

The Ladies are holding a stall on Friday, June 10th. - all day. The stall is in Central Park, as usual. The Ladies would like any unwanted goods to flog - books, cakes, linen, anything that you don't want or don't like that somebody else may. These stalls usually go well and the Ladies put a lot of work into them. Delivery of goods can be to the Clubrooms on Tuesdays, Thursdays or Saturdays to Auntie Hazel.

There is also a Fashion Show coming up shortly and I'm told that this time men's clothing will also be shown. I was asked if any of the boys would model the clothes. Well-

Gorgeous George Quennell in all black organza
Blondie Lewis (wig and all) in pink lace and ribbons
Desperate Dan Houston in green velvet slacks and matching bolero

GRAND FINALE:

Basil the Dazzle Papoutsakis and Bonnie Ronnie Cummings in matching peacock blue and canary-yellow striped bell-bottoms, topped with burnt orange skin-tight crepe shirts.....WOW!!!!

SOCCER SHORTS

It is rumoured that Billy Lewis wears a blonde wig.

Gee, there are some big Welshmen...Dick Richardson, Joe Erskine, Dave Morgan...

Tom Flynn has been a knockout down at Frankston this season. Sorry, Tom, that was below the belt.

What about last week's battle? Hercules Unchained?

The pitch was as greasy as the opponents.

When Tom, the coach, said, 'Down the line,' he didn't mean the tramline.

Alec, back from Perth, noticed the Finches, and the Parrott's were still here, but the Bower had gone.

Profitable trip for Peter Goss. On our reserve line, he was asked to referee the adjoining game: Alexander v. Polonia reserves. Worth $15 to him.

Then there was the goalie who let in 10 goals. Was very upset in the dressing-rooms afterwards - sat down and went to put his head in his hands...he missed.

Next home game v Moreland Sat. June 6

Next game v Waverley Sat. May 30 Away fixture.
