CITY CHATTER

Once again we welcome you to the Frankston City ground for the match against Yallourn. The Yallourn Club is from the Latrobe Valley and we take this opportunity to welcome its players, supporters and Committee to our venue and hope they enjoy today's game.

This is bound to be a hard game for both sides. Already teams are beginning to sort themselves out. Yallourn narrowly missing out last season, like ourselves, seem to have got off to a good start. Although against some of the poorest opposition they have scored fourteen times in three weeks, so far. Still our defence is very strong this season and will be at their best for this clash with what may be possible promotion candidates, although it is maybe a little soon to say. Our previous games against the Yallourn Club have always been close and exciting so we expect this on to be also. Last season matches ended up close. We lost John Walton in the Valley before losing 2-0. In that match however we had no fewer than five players injured and survived with 10 men for a 2-0 defeat. In the return, an exciting game ended rightly so at a 1-1 draw.

A number of the Yallourn club are stopping behind for a couple of hours after today's games and supporters are invited to join the players and our visitors for the convivial drink after the match.

Hope you enjoy today's fare with our friends from Yallourn.

Cheerio.

Triestina never looked like getting into this game at all, with the talent on view for Frankston. The blues turned out like last year's 1st eleven and played like it. The five-nil defeat was flattering indeed to the Italian side. It was left to Trevor Parry to open the scoring with a good shot. Jim Brown having a fine debut hit home a penalty for the second. Trevor Parry in fine form on the left wing hit his second goal and Frankston's third before half time gave the reds a rest. Brian Finch, rested from 1st team duty, netted a fourth at the second attempt when Frankston continued the onslaught. The game finished at 5-0 for the blues and puts them at the head of the reserve table. We have always been close in this division and this seems a perfect opportunity to win this pennant. These games before the seniors are always entertaining especially from Frankston's point of view and displays the wealth of talent we have at the club.

Report:--

An easy victory for the blues that was soon obvious after the start, even though Triestina took a shock fifth minute lead. The blues played some of their best football against the mediocre opposition and may have had many more goals had they not have relaxed in the second half. Triestina took an early lead when Trubizio chased a long ball, aided by a strong wind, outran Lewis and Schroeder and slid the ball past Bill Papoutsakis.

Frankston then pressed continuously and several players came close to scoring as Triestina's goal led a charmed life. It was Mick Benton, having a grand game, that equalised, which rounded off some good football by lashing home a loose ball to score a great goal; that fairly scorched into the net. The first half brought no further goals but it seemed only a matter of time before Frankston took the lead. With the wind advantage in the second half Frankston soon got on top but took some twenty minutes to take the lead, when Alan Parrott netted his second goal for the season. Dave Morgan put the blues further in front hitting home a loose ball and Graham Baulk scored the fourth falling over for a good goal. On the whole the side performed well, there wasn't a bad player in view.

NEXT GAME - Away at Princes Park Hercules

NEXT HOME GAME - V Sandringham

The defence was not often pressed and had the reds attack well in control. Apart from that early lapse when Triestina took the lead there were hardly any goal attempts by the reds. The attack, with Alan Parrott the pick of a good front line, were giving Triestina a torrid time. Dave Morgan and Keith Lawson were getting the better of their men, but, the star of the game for us I thought was Mick Benton. Mick gave a tough, skilfull performance and crowned a great game with a great goal. Alan Parrott, having a good season had a fine game and Bill Papoutsakis who rarely plays badly is a keeper we can be proud of.

Bill Lewis and Ron Cummings had little to do and what they had to do they did well. Bill Houston our Vice Captain again showed his experience with a steady game. Handsome Billy is one of those players who never seems to play poorly. Kurt Schroeder back to the form that won him last seasons best and fairest was as safe as houses as sweeper. Graham Baulk still as luckless as ever hit the bar and had several near misses. Graham won't claim to be a goal scorer but his speed and positioning gets him many chances per game. Dave Morgan comes back with a goal. A quiet but competent game from the Welshman. Dave combined with Alan Parrott and used his good close ball play to advantage.

With this line up we should have a great chance for promotion but the effort also need be there.

Summing up, an easy victory, but relaxation may have lost us goals which could be important in the later stages.
