CITY CHATTER

Good afternoon once again, and welcome to North Seaford Reserve. Today's opponents are Altona City. Another progressive club, but from the other side of Melbourne. We extend our usual welcome to their players, supporters and Committee. Altona were promoted to Division 1 in 1967 and have fared well in that division since. They finished well up last season in fact in 5th place. They also reached the semi-final of the Federation Cup and forced a replay with eventual winners Yallourn. Altona won the Federation Cup in 1969. They have strengthened their line up this season with 4 signings, Ian Reid, Tom Healey and Bill Savage from Slavia, plus Goalkeeper Vanderpoel. We met them earlier this season in a Federation Cup match, and although they had the better of the game, we ended up 2-1 in front. Altona play attractive football and we can expect a hard game today against them.

Things happening being the scenes at Frankston. Always looking ahead, we have gained the services of Jim Adam as Chief Coach. Jim is at present lecturing at the coaching course being held at Frankston. He has been a professional player most of his life and has coached senior sides in the UK and Victoria. He was a professional player with Aston Villa and Luton Town. In Victoria he played with Sth Melb. Hellas. Jim was also Assistant coach of the Australian Squad. He promises, as we expect, big things from such a competent experienced professional coach. A big move by the Frankston Committee, even if it was at an inopportune time. The Baxter project has begun and given some time less than 2 years we should be playing at the Greyhound Racing Stadium.

We have signed Goalkeeper John Docherty from George Cross. John is a fine performer, and should challenge the brilliant Bill Papoutsakis for a place. Always handy to have an extra goalkeeper. We have been lucky not to have had any injuries to Bill and young Geoff Bardsley the Res. keeper, also very competent between the sticks. Mick Benton comes back from injury today, but we still have Alan Parrott, Terry Scourfield and Nigel Bevis out injured.

We have slipped down the League a place, after last week, but there's still a long way to go and look to better results in the future. Cheers. N.B.

Report

Frankston were in trouble from the start of this away game at Ringwood. Defenders were floundering in the heavy conditions, and the attack couldn't function in their usual style also being bogged down in thick mud. Ringwood handled the conditions much better and missed several chances in the early stages. Ringwood scored after 15 minutes when Nigel Bevis slipped in passing back and provided the best shot of the match to hit the crossbar. Ringwood scored from the rebound. Frankston were lucky to be only a goal down at interval but came out looking a better side in the second half. Not for long however, Ringwood now playing the offside trap, got on top again and scored twice mid-way through the second half, to win by 3 goals. A poor performance by the Blues, who thankfully look much better at home on a drier pitch. Best 3. Papoutsakis, Mathews, Hall.

JUNIOR SPOTLIGHTFrankston Seaford Under 9's

Manager: Bob Waugh (English) Coach: Garth Whittingham (UK)
 Assistant Manager: Don Boucher (Australian)
 Assistant Coach: Bob Atkins (Australian)

Both coaches of the under 9's at Seaford are amongst a group of coaches undergoing a course at Frankston at the moment. Both Garth Whittingham and Bob Atkins are doing a grand job with the under 9's, and have gained the respect of their charges. There are a total of 32 boys playing in the under 9 group, seven of whom are young enough to play under 8's. These seven are in their third year of the game however and playing well enough to warrant playing in an older group. One of these is the Captain of the A team, Craig Lamb. Both goalkeepers N. Kitchen and R. Atkins, J. Waugh, G. Leeson, K. McNair are others in this category. A. & B teams are being run with the remainder of the boys playing friendlies to give them a game. The A team is at present at the top of the League and unbeaten. These boys play terrific football for their age and are well led by their Captain. Leading goal scorers are - M. Whittingham 15, G. Mitchell 13, S. Moy 5, G. Burns 4, C. Lamb 3, B. Blackman 1. B team scorers are - N. Thacker 2, G. Love 1, K. McNair 1, J. Spiker 1, M. Boucher 1. The following are the boys in the Under 9 squad. N. Kitchen, T. Nixon, G. Leeson, J. Waugh, D. Stretton, B. Blackman, G. Mitchell, G. Burns, M. Whittingham, C. Lamb, S. Moy, R. Atkins, P. Reeves, G. Davis, J. Spiker, T. Livinstead, G. Love, D. Burchell, K. McNair, K. Ouivehand, N. Thacker, M. Boucher, M. Ballantyne, P. Gruyters, T. Lindsay, T. Berry, C. Sanders, T. Gilles, R. Porteous, S. Greenhill, B. Stewart, G. Rouget.

The ENGLISH F.A. Tour

The England Under 23 Squad coming to Australia in June, and Victoria on the 6th and 20th of that month will not be on "holiday" as most other teams who have come over here have. Most of them will be playing for places in the full England team for the next World Cup in Munich. Some attractive names come with the squad, but only one who has represented England in the full International, Mike Baily, Captain of Wolves. Rodney Marsh and Malcolm McDonald were to have toured with the squad, but both have been transferred this week, McDonald to Newcastle for $350,000 and Marsh for a similar figure. Neither are now with the squad. The full England Squad to tour Australia is:

M. Baily (Wolves) K. Wagstaff (Hull) G. McVitie (W.B.A)
B. Bridges (Millwall) P. Grummitt (Sheff Wed)
M. Mills (Ipswich) C. Cailton (Hull City)
A. Stevenson (West Ham) N. Piper (Portsmouth)
J. Barron (Notts Forest) P. Hindley (Notts Forest)
K. Eddy (Watford) P. Wall (Crystal Palace) M. Keen (Luton)
D. Wagstaff (Wolves)

CLUBMAN'S CORNER No. 3 STANLEY NORMAN STANLEY

The name above is correct. Norm, as we know him said it was the only time in his life he was speechless, so the name stands, or should I say stans. Norm Stanley was born in Freshwater, Isle of Wight, but moved to Welwyn Garden City at the age of 3. His next door neighbour at that tender age was Horace Baulk. Quite fantastic that they should both end up at the same club in Aust. Norm was 17 years old when the 2nd World War broke out in 1939. He joined the Territorials and served his Country in the Middle East, Italy and France, where he was one of the many evacuated at Dunkirk. Norman served in the Royal Artillery on Radar and reached the dizzy heights of Staff Sergeant (hence the booming voice?). During his military career, he had the fortune to be billeted in Ticknall, Derby in private digs. A young lady named Dawn lived next door, yes - that's now wife Dawn, also a prominent member of the Frankston Club. They have a daughter Ann who is married to first teamer Trevor Parry and who recently became a Mother of a daughter, Sian. Norm and Dawn came to Australia in 1957. Norm now works as a Judges Tipstaff in the Supreme Court of Victoria. Before this he managed the local Riviera Hotel at Seaford. In his playing career, Norm played for Arsenal Reserves and was on the books of the double Champions for 7 years. As an Amateur he played for Hitchin Town and Nebworth, John Walton S' old club. Norm represented the British Army against Italy at Rimini in 1945 as a centre half. His professional career ended at Luton when he broke his leg, in the same game Jesse Pye, later of Wolves and England broke an ankle. In Australia, Norm played for Frankston in 1961 at the age of 40 years. He has occupied every post in the Club, and was the first Frankston member to be elected on the Metro League Management Committee. He later became Chairman and was elected to the Victorian Executive Committee. Norm is also a proficient Darts player and Spin Bowler. He has had a happy year this year with Frankston winning promotion, Arsenal, of whom he is an ardent supporter, winning the double, and becoming a Grandfather a month or so ago. Now says Norm, he wants to see Frankston in the National League, Arsenal win the World Club Championship, to become a Great Grandfather and for somebody to agree with him.
