PERSONALITY PARADE No 3 TERRY SCOURFIELD

Every club has a comedian and we've got several, and dapper Terry Scourfield is one of them. Terry was born a Cockney in Bethnel Green in 1947, and works as an Insurance Representative with Albert Mathews, which must be just about as comical a team as you can get. No to be outdone, Terry's wife Valerie is also full of cockney humour and together they'll get a laugh from anyone. Val is expecting later in the year. The Scourfield's came to Australia in April 1970. Terry although in Insurance now, is a telephone technician.

On the playing field Terry has neat ball control and uses the ball well. He is very fast off the mark and plays on the wing or midfield. Terry played mainly Sunday Soccer in London in Strong competitions and gained some 20 medals. He also played for Ford United the London seme proffessional side, and as a youngster gained trials at Leyton Orient but injury prevented him from taking his place in final trials. Terry was also a school $\frac{1}{2}$ mile champion.

Terry and Val are very popular at the Frankston Club. We hope they stay a long time, their typical cockney humour makes them very good company and a laugh a minute. Terrys' on the sidelines at the moment through injury but we soon hope to see tricky Terry back in the side.

CLUBMANS CORNER No 2 ALBERT WALTER NEWBY

One of the most popular of the Club's helpers is "NOBBY" Newby. Nobby's an old age pensioner and a keen supporter of the blues. He does tons of work around the club but hasn't always been behind the scenes. Nobby had quite an illustrious career on the Soccer Scene in Victoria.

He came to Australia in 1922 at the age of 17 years played for Brunswich in 1923 and was in a Dockerty Cup running side. He was later to play for Preston and South Melbourne as a centre forward and was reserve for Victoria against China in 1924. Nobby married an Australian girl in 1925 and they had 3 children. Diane, Charmayne and Michael.

He played Aussie Rules in 1929 for Arcount in the Castlemaine District. He worked in Pottery for many years and also was in the Navy. Nobby twice survived sinking ships in the 1st and second world wars and has many tales to tell about his exploits throughout his life. Favourite Frankston player is Trevor Parry.

ONCE IN A LIFETIME

If you're lucky you may have been to an English Cup Trial. If you've been its probably only the once, so difficult to obtain is the priceless ticket. As usual Horrow Town had been issued with a small quota of Cup Final Tickets a promotional gimmick at the English F.A. for its smaller clubs. As usual they held a raffle for the teckets. I was always an unlucky soul in raffles and such, so I headed for the bar. I was at the door when I heard it "Oy! you've won a ticket!" "Hooray" I shouted, this Final in 1967 promised to be one of the best of all time especially for a Londoner. Two London Clubs were to contest the Final Spurs and Chelsea. When was the last all Londal Final I thought? The newspapers promised the usual sell out weeks before. The black market boys would have a great day. £30 to £40 a ticket was the going rate. A full house always a certainty. I was offered a great sum for my ticket but I held on for days, then I relented as I was off to Australia in a few days.

Well I thought £30 or £40 would come in handy, and the game was on TV. "You'll get a better price at the stadium". I agreed, and when the great day arrived I got my pal to take me to the stadium, sell the ticket, and back for the kick off. I wandered for an hour. "£30.10 mate?" "no thanks". I thought of the pal I was about to lose as I walked through the turnstile at 5 to 3. I was quite a sacrifice he'd been a good pal. I thought of the teams and the game it promised to be. Several Internationals on Show, the subtle headwork of Gilzean. The power and drive of Englands Alan Mullery. The Welsh Grant Mike England, and Jimmy Greaves the peerless goal sneak. The brilliance of Charlie Cooke and Peter Bonetti. Alas it was a poor Final, Tactically brilliant. For the record Spurs won 2-0. Only the brilliant dribbling of Charlie Cooke and the goals efforts of Jimmy Greaves stay in my memory on the field that it. The lush turf, the atmosphere, the pomp and circumstance I'll never forget, or the face on my pal as I came outside to the grey London sky. He'd seen it on a TV in the local which just could not compare.

REPORT

An early victory for Frankston, remembering how we struggled against Doncaster in 2 cup matches earlier this season, and with our already depleted senior side cut down even more with an injury to Nigel Bevis late in the game at Prahran the day before. A strong wind was blowing from end to end and to the blues advantage in the first half. We took a long time to put our superiority to goals however, and on the 20 minute mark Keith Lawson scored after good work by Parry and Mathews on the left. Keith's second was a gem. I

JUNIOR SPOTLIGHT UNDER 8's

Under the astute management and coaching of Bill Reeves and John Fox, we have an up and coming side of Under 8 years, and another in the making in the 'B' side. Bill Reeves is Australian and John Fox Scottish. Bill was treasurer of the club last year but we decided he'd like a more active role. John Fox is already well known to Seaford's growing band of supporters, having coached lads in the early stages of learning the game. John has some able assistants in Hans Kuipers, John Geddes, John Neil and new 8B coach Len Moy. Bill Reeves is a busy, progressive manager and says that the lads are doing well and he is quite pleased with the progress. The numbers have grown quite large so we now run A & B sides with the A side playing competition and the B side freindlies, although our live wire controllers of the under 8's, have been in contact with other clubs and are organising a Saturday league for B teams. We certainly can be grateful to have such men handling our youngsters. Present players list.

K. Clarke, R. Gaffey, M. Greenhill, S. Kempsey, R. Kuipers, G. Greeves, R. Kelton, T. Metchell, B. Reeves, J. Rumble, D. Riley, A. Sass, B. Taylor, J. Vandenberg, D. Skilton, R. Geddes, G. Petherick, J. Smith, J. Taylor, R. Neal, J. Sage.

We hope parents can continue to help with transport and it is nice to see helpers for the ground marking etc. Thank you all.

A recent survey of the under 8 set up shows that 85% were Australian born.

In the next home programme we will feature the Under 9 teams.

NEXT GAMES AWAY v RINGWOOD UNITED 15th May.

NEXT HOME GAME v ALTONA 22nd May.

Tomorrows cup game against Dandenong or ICI is not certain to be on, owing to a dispute between the two clubs so who, or whether we play tomorrow is anybody's guess. We do try to be informative in this article

CITY CHATTER

Good afternoon to you all and welcome once again to Frankstone City Soccer Club. We extend our welcome to the players, supporters and Committee of Keilor City. Keilor City have started the season in a winning frame of mind and we will have to pull out all the stops for points here. Many may remember us playing Keilor a couple of years ago when they became champions of the second Division the first time in, and their reserve side pipped ours in the last game of the 1968 Season to win their league.

A changed side visited Prahran last weekend with so many injuries to senior players and we included 3 youngsters in our lineup.

Now players apparently are to come on the scene to improve our already sizeable playing staff and safeguard against any possible relegation to get into this division. Barry Horsfall, former George Cross winger has been approached, as has Robignew Knott former Polonia midfielder and defender. In fact Robignew has been down the club and is very interested also Roger Baxter former Lions striker not signed with Triestina.

The league warms up now and no team has dropped less than three points and we find ourselves in the danger zone, if you like, but only three points behind leaders Sunshine. It will be interesting to see the league table in say 10 weeks time but it seems most teams are fairly even but Prahran and perhaps Springvale may find themselves in trouble. Favourites, well that's anybody's guess right now. I fancy Elwood or perhaps today's opponents Keilor City having already had two seasons in Division one and finishing well. Star players they have many, most interesting to watch may be Wally Klein, a member of the Victorian under 23 side in midfield. Anyway win or lose here's hoping you enjoy today's games and see you next home game.

Cheerio!

counted nine passes, four in the goalmouth, without a Doncaster Player touching the ball and it was in the back of the net. The third goal came from the spot. The fouled player taking the kick and notching his hattrick. The fourth was David Johnstone's, and a long time coming. Bert Mathews, Keith Lawson together with David and Trevor Parry were giving the Doncaster side a soccer lesson with accurate passing and superb running off the ball. But well they could afford to enjoy themselves with Kurt Schroeder and his fellow defenders so much on top. In fact Bob Adams and Jim Skelley looked like they'd been in the 1st team for years. Time and again the youngsters beat off attacks and set up the hard working Jones and Finch to prompt the dangerous Frankston front line. Praise to Doncaster though, out played all afternoon, they never gave up trying.

Best three, very difficult to pick. Jim Skelley for a faultless display at the left back. Bob Adams a powerhouse at centre half, and David Johnstone a tireless worker in defence and attack.

REPORT

Our second victory of the season against bottom side Prahran. The result never seemed in doubt although it was a long time before we really got a grip on the game. With so many injuries to first team players, we took a gamble on our youngsters and won. Bob Adams and Jim Skelley playing their second and third respectively handled the situation well, whilst Alan Jones on his debut, proved handy in midfield. The driving force in the team however was Dave Johnstone. Dave is proving to be our best signing for years, and the former Ringwood United and Metropolitan League Captain continually broke down attacks and aided Keith Lawson and Bert Mathews to cut through a weak Prahran defence. It was David who put Alby Mathews through for his first of three goals. Keith Lawson missed a great chance for another few minutes later when with only the Goalkeeper to beat. He skied the ball over the bar when caught in the sand in front of the goal. It was Keith Lawson, having a good season who made Alby's two other goals. The first almost identical to the first goal when he put him through for Alby to score with another great shot. The third goal came from a free kick. With deadly precision Keith Rocketed across to Alby and he only had to steer it into the net for a great hattrick. We almost had two others, one when the hard working Dave Johnstone headed over after young Bob Adams headed a corner back into the danger zone. It was a good victory and it is hard to think we will do badly in this League despite recent adverse results, and with, Star Players. Alan Parrott, Mick Benton, Graham Baulk, Brian Finch and Terry Scourfield out injured. Best players on this day David Johnstone, Keith Lawson and Bob Adams. With a good performance all round from Frankston.
