

TO: All Clubs

FROM: Football Operations

DATE: March 22, 2007

SUBJECT: 2007 Season Contingency

In accordance with the guidelines set out in Football Federation Victoria's Contingency Strategy, the Football Operations department has reviewed the guidelines and can advise the following:

- All Men's State, Provisional and Metropolitan Leagues will be delayed by a further week, to commence on the weekend of April 21-22, 2007.
- All Women's State and Metropolitan Leagues will be delayed by a further week, to commence on the weekend of May 5-6, 2007.
- All Men's Thirds and Masters Leagues will be delayed by a further week, to commence on the weekend of May 5-6, 2007.
- All Junior Leagues will be delayed by a further week, to commence on the weekend of May 5-6, 2007.
- All Rooball Leagues will be delayed by a further week, to commence on the weekend of May 19-20, 2007.

The season duration has been maintained throughout each competition, with a full set of Men's State, Provisional and Metropolitan fixtures scheduled for the Queen's Birthday Public Holiday on Monday June 11, 2007.

Please consult the FFV website for any changes to your club's fixtures

<http://www.footballfedvic.com.au/competitions/fixtures/>

Regards,

Tony Persoglia
Head of Football Operations